Summary Statement:

The proposed IGA with Weld County defines the election responsibilities between the Town of Frederick and Weld County, for the Coordinated Election.

Detail of Issue/Request:

In January 2009, the Board of Trustees discussed the Home Rule Charter election time tables. The discussion included holding the initial election, electing the Home Rule Charter Commission members. The Commission would then work on the Charter for the required 120 days, present the proposed Home Rule Charter to the Board of Trustees in August 2009 and then have the citizens of Frederick vote on the Charter at the Coordinated Election in November 2009. The proposed IGA defines the election responsibilities between the Town of Frederick and Weld County Election Department. The Coordinated Election will be a Mail Ballot Election, with the estimated cost to be $5,000.

Legal/Political Considerations:

Alternatives/Options:

Hold a polling place Special Election on a different date; a date based on Colorado Revised State Statutes.

Financial Considerations:

Sufficient funds were appropriated for this expenditure.

Staff Recommendation:

Motion to approve and enter into the IGA between the Town of Frederick and Weld County Elections.
